

André “Thump” Thornton- Correctional Probation Supervisor
Community Control/ Global Positioning Satellite Unit
Florida Department of Corrections, Probation & Parole

Andre Thornton is a 14 year veteran of the Fl. Dept. of Corrections Probation and Parole services. Mr. Thornton is currently the Supervisor of a specialize unit that supervise Sex Offenders, Sex Predators, and high risk criminals on the GPS Monitor for Circuit-17 in Broward. A native of Chicago, IL Mr. Thornton moved to Florida and finished High School in Orlando, Mr. Thornton received his education and earned his B.S degree in Criminal Justice at Florida A& M University,

Mr. Thornton is also a High School Football Coach at Coral Springs Charter were he is currently the Varsity Defensive Line Coach. Mr. Thornton has been mentoring young males through Football for over 15 years, Through Football and organizations like 100 Black Men Mr. Thornton is committed to finding new avenues that will allow him to continue to be a positive influence on the lives of others and to assist young males in their transition from childhood to manhood.

Mr. Thornton is currently acting Vice- President of the 100 Black Men of Greater Fort Lauderdale, he is also an active board member of the Coconut Creek Youth Football Program, a member of Pompano Masonic Lodge #409 (P.H.A.), Served as Potentate of Saba Temple #187 A.E.A.O.N.M.S. (Shriners) P.H.A. and a life member of National Society Of Pershing Rifles

Mr. Thornton is married to his lovely wife Dawna and together they have two (2) children, a son Jamal and a daughter Morgan.