

DENNIS L. WRIGHT

Astute, hardworking, passionate, and loyal are just a few attributes that come to mind when describing Mr. Wright. As an Information Technology Manager at Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd, Mr. Wright's dedication to self development and commitment to community service is unparalleled. While some people shy away from challenges, Mr. Wright welcomes them with a "How Can I Attitude".

Mr. Wright is President of the 100 Black Men of Greater Fort Lauderdale. The organization's mission runs parallel to Mr. Wright's goals which are to improve the economic status of our communities as well as provide programs that enhance and enrich the lives of our youth. Being able to give back to the community is very close to his heart.

With a sincere appreciation for the contributions made by people of African decent, both past and present, Mr. Wright has devoted his personal time to the continued education and mentoring of African American youth on their history and their expectations. Mr. Wright's message to the South Florida community consist of motivation, education, and empowerment with the understanding that the time is NOW to set goals, achieve dreams, and make a difference.

Mr. Wright, a third generation business owner, is the President and CEO of Simply I.T., an Information Technology company whose mission is to level the playing field for small to medium size businesses through technology by expanding their customer reach and making them more competitive.

Dennis L. Wright was born and raised in Fort Lauderdale and relaxes by fishing, reading, working out, and spending quality time with his wife, Veda and his sons Justin and Myles. Mr. Wright has learned the true measure of success is giving 110% of oneself to improve the lives of others.
